For a quarter of a century, Great Explorations Children's Museum has provided a safe place for informal learning and creative play. More than a museum, Great Explorations also supports a preschool, summer camps, community outreach programs, and partners with local agencies to meet the needs of foster children and homeless families. The generosity of individuals and businesses allows the Museum to remain a vital community resource through innovative new exhibits such as Express Yourself Art Studio and Touch Tunnel and evolving educational programs for children, parents and educators.

GREAT EXTRAVAGANZA

25th Anniversary Celebration

November 4, 2011

FRIENDS.
FOOD.
FIREWORKS.
FUNDRAISING.

Set sail on a beautiful sunset dinner cruise aboard the StarLite Majesty. This sleek 115-foot vessel features two brass and mirror-accented dining decks with outside bow and top decks to view the dazzling lights of downtown St. Petersburg.

Have a commemorative photo taken dockside before departing, then enjoy cocktails with friends while the crew prepares a selection of ten different entrees. Dance to live music, and bid on exceptional items during the live and silent auctions.

Find a spot from which to view the stars before returning to shore after a truly explosive grand finale.
